

Your Conduct

This document explains Cahoots Code of Conduct for Kids and Teens Participants

A code of conduct tells you HOW to behave on camps and day programs

When you see the word we or us in this document it means Cahoots

	This code tells you about Your rights Your responsibilities How we expect you to behave
	Who is this code for? It is for you and your family or your decision makers Signing the Code of Conduct means you know what you can do at a camp or day program <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. You will be provided the Code of Conduct (Kids and Teens Participants) at your Service Intake Appointment2. Your family or decision maker will sign your Code of Conduct before you go on camp or day program
	Cahoots Values supports the Code of Conduct Respect Trust Inspire Celebrate Collaborate

Interacting with others

Treat others with courtesy and respect

Contribute positively

Respect others may have different ideas

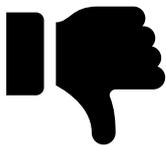

Consider how your conduct might impact others

Behave in a safe manner

When on a camp or day program, we would like to see you

- Engage in activities
- Try new skills and activities
- Seek support from fellow participants
- Meet new people and practice positive communication skills
- Build healthy and appropriate friendships with other participants
- Ask for time out when you begin to feel agitated
- Talk to your Leader or the Facilitator

We DON'T want to see you

- ✘ Bully, threaten or tease others
- ✘ Swear
- ✘ Run away
- ✘ Bring alcohol, drugs, cigarettes or weapons
- ✘ Leave a place without asking a Leader

Bringing phones, headphones, tablets, smart watches

We strongly encourage you to leave these devices at home, unless your family or decision maker allow you to bring them

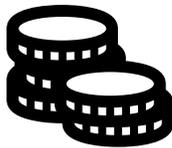

If you do bring your device

you can keep it but are responsible for it or you can give it to the Facilitator to keep safe

You cannot take photos or video other participants

Bringing money and valuables

We strongly encourage you to leave money, jewellery or computer games at home

If you do bring money or valuables

you can keep it but are responsible for it

or

you can give it to your Facilitator to keep safe

We will help you with your money

- When you are dropped off by your family or decision maker, we will ask them what you can buy with your money
- If you want to buy something different, then we will tell your family or decision maker to see if that is ok

If you DO NOT follow the Code of Conduct

we may contact your family or decision maker and you may be sent home

Versions

No.	Approval Date	Description of Amendment
1.0	26/05/2023	New
2.0	15/05/2025	Reviewed and updated the Easy Read Code of Conduct to align with the Teens & Kids Participant Code of Conduct policy and improve clarity.

Owner	Approver	Next Review
Community Engagement Manager	CEO	May 2027